Week ending 10th January 2025

Dear Parent/Carers,

Happy New year to you all!

We have had a really positive start to 2025 at All Saints' – despite having issues with our Wifi across the school. It impacted our phone lines as well as our use of the internet and shared drive across the school. Apologies if you have attempted to telephone the school and not been able to get through – a message was sent out asking parents to email in if there were not able to speak to us. We are hopeful that the issues have now been resolved!

Year 6 are currently learning all about World War 2 and they would like to invite into school, anyone who was a child during WW2 to come and share their memories.

Were you evacuated?

What were food rations like?

If you would like to share your experiences with our children, please contact us on 01255 502389 and arrange a suitable time.

We would love to see you!

Before Christmas we shared a letter with you, informing you of the Inclusion and Diversity Festival Harwich schools are holding on the 21st March 2025. Plans are now coming together and it is looking to be a really exciting day and a great learning opportunity for our Harwich families. As part of our preparation, we would really appreciate some parental advice/support in planning this to ensure we are being factual and sensitive towards others in our community. If you would be willing to join in the festival, either individually or as part of a group, we would love to hear from you. We would also love you to share with us any cultures that you would like to see represented during the festival as we are not always aware of family backgrounds and history. Please get in touch with me if you would like to get involved!

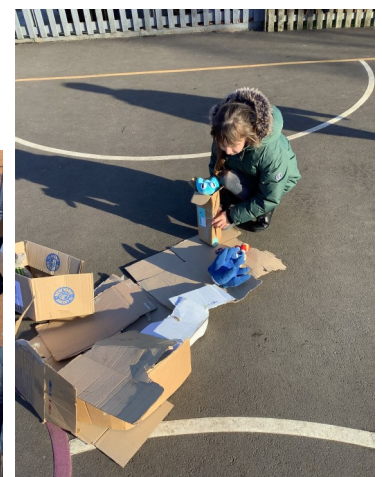

Clubs will be restarting next week! For more details please see the timetable as follows: School Clubs Timetable | All Saints' Church of England Voluntary Aided Primary School

EPC clubs can be booked via this link: Parent Pay Clubs | Schools | Essex Professional Coaching

We have reintroduced some different activities during lunchtime this week. It is incredible how many different uses our children can find for cardboard boxes – including recreating bowling alleys and forming a rock band. Please ask your children about the different activities they have been enjoying at lunchtimes – and, as always, we would love your feedback.

Wishing you all a happy & safe weekend.

Mrs Moseley

JANUARY

Our musician of the month is

“ Beethoven ”

Music Title: Symphony No. 5, First Movement

Listen here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n3EiRynr1Us&t=2s>

Written: 1804-1808

Background to the music:

This is played by the Boston Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Benjamin Zander.

A symphony is a large-scale composition written for an orchestra. Symphonies are divided into sections called movements. Each movement has its own name which tells you a bit about how it should be performed. The first movement of symphony number 5 is Allegro con brio; this means at a fast tempo and with spirit (brio = brilliance).

This week has been a very cold start to the year! We've had lots of frost and ice but equally some beautifully bright sunny days to help thaw us out throughout the day.

The children have really enjoyed being back outside working together and using the forest school facilities to their full potential. A reminder that the children will need to wrap up in extra layers for the colder days and to bring extra/spare cosy socks for them too! Mrs Thomas

Talking So Children Will Listen

Effective communication is the foundation of a healthy parent-child relationship. During our online workshops, parents and caregivers will learn the skills needed to communicate with their children in a constructive and encouraging way. This course emphasises the importance of using positive language, avoiding harmful labels, and fostering open dialogue that supports a child's emotional development. By understanding how words can shape a child's self-perception and behavior, participants will gain tools to nurture a more trusting and connected relationship with their child.
